

to give its whole paper free to the department stores.

Miss Virginia Brooks told the Women's Trade Union League yesterday how the women cleaned up West Hammond, once a den of vice and graft.

"And yet some people say women are not practical," commented Mrs. Raymond Robins, after Miss Brooks had finished.

Harry Larsen, 1909 N. Kedzie av., Elevated electrician, killed instantly by Douglas Park train at Centre av.

Next to good character, the most valuable possessions of the state are healthy people."—Arthur B. Farwell in address to Volunteers of America.

But how are we going to have a healthy people, so long as there are sweat shops, and places like Kuppenheimer's make their employes eat luncheon in water closets.

Edw. Nelson, Frank Mahoney and Geo. Davenport, alleged confidence men come to gather in the harvest from Republican politicians, arrested on general principles.

Fred Jaeger, saloonkeeper, 2146 Sheffield ave., locked $150 in safe just before two bandits held up saloon. They got $2.85, and told Jaeger they were sorry for him, with so poor a business.

Henry Mullarkey, 16, 406 W. Huron st., found bottle of whiskey, and thought it would be fine to get drunk like a real man. Stomach pump saved his life.

Practically certain T. Roosevelt will be in Chicago by Wednesday if his campaign managers don't change the things they call their minds.

N. Kapels, motorman, badly hurt in collision of car with auto driven by H. Goldberg, 2019 W. Division st., at Chicago and N. Hoyne aves. Golberg "took a chance" on being able to cross in front of street car.

Miss Katherine Mahoffy, of Zion City, to marry Waldegrave Bulivant, when he finishes six months for embezzlement from Chicago bank.

ROOSFOLLETTE MAN.

Sen. Gronna, North Dakota, strong LaFollette booster, whom the Roosevelt men prefer to Root for chairman.